EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS.—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required, and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land, a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by, E. E Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

Election, Thursday, October 18th.

The Howard Amendment—A Scheme for Disfranchising the States, Inaugurating a Consolidated in place of a Federal Government, and to Secure Universal Negro Suffrage as an End.

Those who claim to be conservative Radicals, if such a misnomer is admissible, deny that the Howard amendment is so seriously objectionable, after all—affirm that it does not force negro suffrage upon the States without their consent—that it does not propose an unfair basis of Congressional representation—that the harshness of the disfranchising section is modified by the fact, as they affirm, that it operates as severely against its friends in the South as against its opponents,—that only a small portion of the population are included—that it does not essentially differ from the policy of the President, and, finally, we must take it as "the best we can get," or take what is immeasurably worse.

We have seen no argument which clearly supports or sustains either of the above assumptions. Not one of them will hold water when put to the test. Yet, this is the amount of the pleas set up in its favor either North or South. We have not seen any attempt to palliate the death-blow aimed by this amendment at the foundation principles of the government, nor excuse for the deep laid plot to ignore the old government, the old Constitution, and the first principles of the government of our fathers, and to establish, in a summary and clandestine manner, a government essentially different from the one which the Federal or Union soldiers thought they were fighting to maintain during the late war. The masses of the North have been hood-winked by the specious sections relating to representation, negro suffrage, disfranchisement and security of the public debt, without once stopping to consider the lurking hostility to the government of our fathers itself, so carefully wrapped up in the first section. This first section contains the sum and substance of the scheme to subvert the government; the remaining four are only adjuncts to the success of the scheme, and put in to pander to the popular feeling. Let us again examine the first section of the constitutional amendment:

"SECTION 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States, and of the States wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

No one will question that, in the beginning, the States, or, more correctly speaking, the original thirteen States, were sovereign States or independent communities, exercising self-government in all respects as separate and independent nations. One of the inherent powers of a State, and of the States in question, is the right to determine the obligations and franchises of each member of the community and to fix and define the qualifications for citizenship. Prompted by motives of mutual protection and benefit, the people of the several States formed a common government, prescribed its powers and its limitations in a written Constitution, clothing said government with all necessary powers and functions for carrying out all the purposes of the Union, reserving to the States all powers not granted to the Federal government. In the original grant of powers to said government, there is no power conferred to define and determine who shall or who shall not be citizens. This, then, is a right clearly reserved to the States. The history of the nation fixes definitely the fact that citizenship is determined by the States themselves, and by them only. Any person being a recognised citizen of any one of the States, is by consequence a citizen of the United States, and entitled to the same immunities and privileges enjoyed by the citizens of any one of the States, subject to the municipal regulations of the State in which he domiciles or resides. This has been a fundamental principle of the government from the beginning, a reserved right of the States which all the powers of the Federal government could not wrest from them legitimately.

It will be perceived, at once, that this first section of the proposed amendment violently wrests from the States this inherent and reserved right, taking advantage of the peculiarly agitated condition of the country to effect the object. We grant that the people of the States and of the Union may change their government at will, when they so elect, but when this is done all the people must be free to act, unbiased or unmenaced from any quarter. Can any one affirm that this is the case at the present time? Does not every one see, that if this organic change be effected now, it is attempted to be forced upon the weak by the strong, and in violation of the solemn sanctions of the Constitution itself?

But it is said that the late revolted States have forfeited all their rights. This is impossible, unless their organic character as States has been destroyed, and this even Mr. Thad. Stevens does not pretend to affirm. No sane man holds that the States occupy the relation of conquered provinces or territories. Mr. Stevens holds that they are conquered States, and therefore have forfeited all their rights. Nonsense. If States at all, they must still retain all their inherent or reserved rights or powers, not surrendered in the Constitution. Whatever might have been their condition, if they had been conquered by a foreign nation, it is impossible that the Federal Government can so hold them, without a palpable violation of its written pledges and obligations to the States at the time of the formation of the common government. The Federal government cannot take from a State its Republican form of government under any pretence, or for any cause whatever, nor can it allow any other power to do it, not even the State itself, if it were so disposed. And this is what is meant by that clause in the Constitution by which the Federal government shall guarantee to every State a Republican form of government. It is a restriction upon the powers of the Federal government. What is a Republican form of government? Why plainly that form which maintains the right of the people of a State to govern themselves, or to form their own municipal law. It is plain, therefore, that the proposed amendment, by which the general government is to be clothed with power to determine the citizenship of the United States and of the States, changes radically the form of government, and, so far as the Southern States are concerned, forcibly compels the surrender of their Republican form of government, and in the case of the South as well as any of the other States who might vote against the amendment, palpably violates its guarantees to them.

A State has no right to secede from the Union, nor otherwise make war upon the Federal government, but if it do, while the people of a State may be punishable, there is no real or constructive right in the Federal government to punish a State. But the amendment proceeds upon the supposed right of a majority of the States and people to punish a refractory State, which is a palpable violation of the Constitution; for the Constitution holds a majority of the States and people pledged to guarantee to the State a Republican Constitution, which a State cannot have, if the right to make its own municipal laws be taken away from it, as this amendment designs to do.

But this amendment not only takes from the States this reserved and inherent right, but it confers upon Congress the power directly to legislate to prevent the States from adopting and executing any law or regulation which they may deem essential to the preservation of their own internal peace and quiet, or the enforcement of order, "which shall abridge the privileges or immunities" of their own inhabitants "who are citizens of the United States." Now, we ask soberly Mr. Holden or the constitutional lawyer (?) who writes for the Newbern Times, if, under this section, Congress may not pass a law, if the States refuse to do it, to bestow upon all negroes the right of suffrage? Is not that a privilege or immunity? What would then hinder Congress from passing a law declaring that the right of suffrage is an immunity to which all citizens of the United States are entitled? What would then follow? Is it not manifest that the first and fifth sections would fully empower the Congress directly to force negro suffrage upon the States, in opposition to the will of the people of those States, or to make any law, establish any Court, or to compel the States, even by a permanent military occupation, to cease the execution of any law, which, in the judgment of the Congress, abridges the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States? Indeed, it is clear that the States would be entirely at the mercy, and under the control, of Congress.

We challenge Mr. Holden to show the fallacy of this entire argument, or any portion of it.

Gen. Dockery.

Ten days have elapsed since the nomination of Gen. Dockery as a candidate of the Holdenites for Governor. Ample time has elapsed for Gen. Dockery to have made known his purpose. No official notice has been given of his acceptance, and yet tickets bearing his name, and other electioneering matter, are being scattered over the State. Is it the intention of the Holdenites to run him nolens volens, or is it the purpose to run him without the announcement of his acceptance, simply to test the strength of the Howard amendment, and to ascertain the number of discontents and factionists in the State? We are content either way. We are fully prepared to risk the issues with Gen. Dockery openly or secretly in the field, but we prefer an announcement, that we may be fully justified in making public what the people should know in regard to the General, his platform and policy.

Personally, we regard Gen. Dockery, and are not disposed to disturb, in the least, the quiet of his old age; but if he puts himself upon the platform of the Howard amendment, he must prepare himself for what follows.

A WRITER in the the Newbern Times undertakes to "review calmly" the Howard amendment, "in the light of free discussion." If not altogether "calm," his treatment of the subject is certainly very "free." For instance, he commences thus:

"This amendment, whether originally so proposed or not, has been by manifest action of Congress, and action of the Executive in the case of Tennessee, regarded as the condition precedent to immediate re-admission of a State into the Union."

Now it is perfectly notorious that the action of the Executive, in the case of Tennessee, was predicated upon precisely opposite grounds.—The President substantially held that there was no evidence before him that Tennessee had really ratified the amendment; that, on the contrary, it was more than probable that a gross fraud had been perpetrated; but that was immaterial, inasmuch as he considered the State entitled to its representation in Congress, without regard to whether it had adopted the amendment or not!

After reading the opening sentence in this "calm review," we laid down the Times mournfully,—not deeming it worth while to proceed further with its free and fancy flights.

Hon. John Pool.

There are many of the former supporters of Mr. Pool, when he ran for Governor in 1860, who feel some anxiety to know his present position. If we recollect correctly, his term, as U. S. Senator, expires the 4th of March next. If he were a private citizen, he might, with great propriety, abstain from making his position known upon the important questions which agitate the country; but as he is a public man, and as these questions are of the highest interest to North Carolina, his constituents have a right to know his present position and his future political purposes, or the principles which will guide him.

If he be with the people of North Carolina, if he be a friend of President Johnson's policy, if he be opposed to the Howard amendment, and if he be a supporter of Gov. Worth, his constituents have a right to know it. Or if he has abandoned the President, and is in favor of the Howard amendment and a supporter of the Holden-Radical nominee, Gen. Dockery, they have a right to know it.

This is rendered the more necessary because the Standard, in all its allusions to him, puts him in a false position. Moreover, it is reported that a letter from Mr. Pool was read before the late Holden-Radical meeting, which was not intended for the public, but which we learn has been used to assure persons that Mr. Pool sympathizes with that movement. We, therefore, call upon Mr. Pool fully to define his position upon the questions pending. Does he support warmly President Johnson's policy, and does he support Gov. Worth? Or does he endorse and favor the passage of the Howard amendment, and does he support Gen. Dockery?

The Standard says Mr. Pool could, but for a mere technicality, take the test-oath. We do not believe Mr. Pool would do such a thing, even if the technicality were removed. We know that, like three-fourths of the people of the State, he was a strong old Union man, was opposed to secession and the war—that he always deprecated it and doubted our final success. We also know that, as the results of the war became more fully developed, he became weak-kneed like Mr. Holden and sympathized with him, and really desired peace, as many did, yet we have never been willing to admit the entire correctness of the account of his position given by Senator Doolittle of him in the U. S. Senate. We have been unwilling to believe the correctness of the intimations made by the Standard of his position, because the facts of history, the acts and doings and words of Mr. Pool, after the war had commenced, all his recorded acts, contradicted those statements.—Among those acts, the Newbern Commercial mentions the following:

"On the 1st Wednesday of November, 1861, an election was held in the 'States in rebellion' for President and Vice President of the Confederate States. Jefferson Davis, of Mississippi, was the candidate for President, and Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, for Vice President.

An electoral ticket was run against the ticket, for the same candidates, named by Holden, and was elected. John Pool, of Pasquotank, was on the successful ticket for the 1st. District. The platform of the ticket was printed on every Pool vote given that day and was as follows;

'An unremitting prosecution of the War,—the War to the last extremity,—Complete independence,—Eternal separation from the North.'

On this platform John Pool ran; on it he was elected, and on it he voted in the electoral College for Jefferson Davis for President, and Alexander H. Stephens for Vice President.

Moreover, it is well known, that Mr. Pool became a voluntary candidate for the Senate in the Legislature of 1864-5, that he voluntarily took the oath to support the Constitution of the Confederate States, and that he, by word and act, during that session, endorsed the cause of the Confederacy. For these reasons, and others not necessary to mention, we have never dreamed that Mr. Pool would take that oath under any circumstances.

Let him, therefore, make known publicly his position at once. If he is for the President and Gov. Worth, or for the Howard amendment and Gen. Dockery, let him say so.

The "Loyal Leagues."

We learn that there are in this State several secret associations bearing the above title, and that others are being formed. This and the "Red Strings," constitute the only secret associations, for political purposes, that we know of. The precise object or extent of their designs we know nothing of, but such organizations will no doubt be used in the coming election to force upon the General Assembly representatives who will misrepresent the communities in which they operate. We advise our friends to be on the alert everywhere, against the plans and machinations of these associations.

Judge Advocate Holt has written to the New York Herald denouncing as "forgeries," the letters lately copied in this paper from the Herald, and purporting to have been addressed to Holt by S. Conover. The Herald replies by offering to exhibit the discredited MS., which, "in the absence of a microscopic test," it pronounces to be written in the same hand with Holt's letter to the Herald.

A Jersey City negro girl fell a distance of twelve feet, head foremost, striking her head on some rocks. She was insensible for a few moments, but recovered in season to attend a colored ball that night and danced till morning.

R. King Cutler, of New Orleans, recently sent to Gen. Sheridan to inquire if he would accept a challenge, to which the General replied that if Cutler or any one else came to him for that purpose he would kick them out of his quarters.

The special committee of the South Carolina Legislature, appointed to provide a place of meeting for the Legislature at the regular session, has reported in favor of Charlestor.

BISHOP D. S. DOGGETT.—The Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, met on the 5th. instant in the Christian Church at Richmond, Ray county, Mo., Bishop Doggett presiding. He will next hold Conference in Illinoii, and afterwards the St. Louis Conference, at Lexington.

The Libels on North Carolina.

The last Greensboro' Patriot ventilates, in the following slashing and trenchant style, the slanders upon the good name of North Carolina that have been so freely circulated by the man Tourgee, who had the insolence and effrontery to assume to hail from this State in the late Radical Convention in Philadelphia, as he now does in the so-called Soldiers' Convention at Pittsburg. Tourgee, however, is by no means the only guilty party in this matter, and the Patriot, over his unworthy shoulders, administers a severe castigation to all the defamers of the State.

From the Greensboro Patriot.

If a state of ill feeling against the Southern States has a place in the hearts of our Northern brothers, and if they have a desire to ostracize the larger portion of our people, these facts cannot excite special wonder. Bad men are industriously at work. Men who claim to be citizens of Southern States, are constantly plying their tongues to Northern audiences, or their pens through the press of the North, every word which they speak or write being uttered solely for the purpose of deceiving the North to the prejudice and injury of the South.

How extremely absurd the story of "fifteen murdered negroes taken from one pond" which a fellow who claims to be a representative of North Carolina, impudently told in the recent convention in Philadelphia! And not only is this story absurd and without foundation in fact, but mean, low, dastardly, cowardly and contemptible is the whole of the harangue in which it is embodied, and which was published in all the leading papers of the North. Of course it was extensively read, and, perhaps, believed; but shameless as it is, the speaker could be excused, had he not told a dozen other falsehoods in the same breath.

He uttered a positive lie when he said nothing but disfranchisement of all traitors, (by which he meant those who were in the Confederate Armies) can save loyal men in North Carolina, who have worn the blue uniform.—He cannot show a single instance of persecution of a Northern man, soldier or civilian, by any person or civil authority in the State.

He told a base lie when he said, "Selling everything they had at a nominal value, twelve hundred of these loyal men have been driven from the State." Who has been "driven" from North Carolina? Does he allude to the emigrants who have been leaving the State during the past year, not on account of any creed or party, but simply with a view to better their pecuniary condition, and join their friends and relatives who have been emigrating to the same section for years previous to the war? The tide of emigration from North Carolina, deprived from leaving, as her people were, during four years, which would necessarily increase the number desiring to go, has not been so great as any year previous to the war. Not a man has gone on account of persecution, and we venture to say that as many who have "worn the Gray" have sought homes in the West as any other class of our people. And we may be pardoned for adding that wherever they may be, they are deporting themselves as gentlemen, and not meddling with affairs which do not concern them, nor stirring up strife and contention in the communities in which they live.

And yet we must notice another atrocious lie, a lie blacker than the diabolic heart which prompted his forked, slimy, vicious tongue to give it utterance. "Seven hundred loyal men had petitioned President Johnson for redress from the rebel depredations and the petition was referred back to the disloyal Governor of that State, and came back to the authorities of their own town." What town does he mean? It can be shown and proven satisfactorily to all who may be at the trouble of ascertaining the facts in the case, that the only petitions ever referred by the President to Governor Worth, were, one from Camden county, and the other from the county of Clay. There were forty-six names on the Camden petition, who set forth that they had been United States soldiers; that on their return home they were wickedly prosecuted by the courts, being indicted for every petty and trivial offense and acts done as soldiers of the United States. The matters set forth in the petition were investigated by D. D. Ferebee, Esq., of Camden, and G. W. Brooks, Esq., who is District Judge of the United States. They severally reported that only two of the petitioners were indicted for any offence—one for retailing liquor without license, and the other for fornication and adultery. These two "Union soldiers" considered an infraction of the statutes of North Carolina a petty affair, and the retailing of mean whiskey without license, and fornication and adultery, as trivial offences! The Courts of Justice in North Carolina are intended to inculcate a more healthy sentiment in regard to morals than the "petitioners aforesaid" would practice, and so thoroughly imbued with the same sentiment are the people of the State, that no person in like manner offending would be exempt from the penalty thereby incurred.

The other petition—from Clay county, was at the instance of one Ledford, who represented that he, too, had been a United States soldier, and that owing to the prejudice growing out of this fact, he had been indicted, convicted and cruelly punished by Judge Merrimon, to wit—fined $100. He avers that he was defended by a Union lawyer who told his client if he didn't charge $50 for his fee, the Judge said the fine would be $200. This petition, on being received by the Governor, from the President, was referred to Judge Merrimon, asking him to report the facts. His report stated that the offense of which Ledford was convicted was shooting a naval pistol twice at the head of an unoffending man, who had saved his life only by dodging, and who had offered no insult or offense to the defendent. The statement of Judge Merrimon was submitted to the lawyer, General Henry, who defended Ledford, a statement of the facts being requested from him. While he did not sustain directly or deny the facts as stated by Judge Merrimon, he declared that a fair scrutiny into the conduct of the Judge would, in his opinion, sustain him as an impartial officer.

These are the facts respecting the only petitions referred by the President to Gov. Worth. To which of them did this hyena of humanity refer? In either case were not the defendants amenable to the laws of the land? Does the jackal suppose that a man, from the fact of his having worn a "blue uniform," is now licensed to trample our laws under foot?—to violate the license law—commit fornication and adultery—to shoot pistols at unoffending men, &c? It is a privilege which heretofore has been denied those who have worn "the Gray," and from which all others, no difference what may have been their previous training, will be required to desist, while living in the law-abiding State of North Carolina.

It may seem that we are attaching undue importance to the vile wretch, who "went to the convention with instructions from two thousand Union men of North Carolina," but justice to the people of the State requires this notice. We doubt whether he can establish the fact that he represented "two thousand" Union men, even in his sense of the term, while true Union men spurn him as they would a mangy dog. He says the men whom he represents demand the disfranchisement of all traitors, and the enfranchisement of all loyal men. He would exclude ex-Confederate soldiers from voting and admit negroes to the ballot box, but he was never instructed by two thousand Union men to make such demands. Nor would he benefit himself by the operation. The negroes are afraid of him. He couldn't obtain fifty negro votes in Guilford county. He tells a lie when he says twelve hundred loyal men have been driven from the State. He tells a lie when he says loyal men were threatened with death if they wore the blue and that they are now wearing the gray. In the county in which he lives, disgracing by his vile presence the very dogs, that, as if by instinct, avoid him as they would a leper, he cannot point out a hundred men of Northern and Southern birth who wear gray, nor can he find ten who wear it as a choice. His story of the fifteen murdered negroes is a lie. His story in regard to the petition of seven hundred loyal men is a lie. When he imputes disloyalty to the Governor of North Carolina he lies. When he appeals to the "loyal men of the North through their press and their pulpits, to give us (himself) help ere we die," he only invokes aid from the reeking, cowardly, herous, ranting "blood hounds of Zion" who disgrace the pulpit by preaching negro equality for the South, but who do not put it in practice among themselves. When he cantingly asks, "Is there no rescue for us? Shall we save the Union men there?" his simulation, his hypocrisy, his deceitfulness, his false pretentions, only stand out the more; and when he makes the imputation that in this State "rebels are in power, in office, on the bench, and Union men in the dungeon," he adds the cap sheaf to more lies than were ever before crowded in so small a space as his "speech" in the Philadelphia Convention, to which dark conception he is a stigma and a reproach.

THE SENTINEL.

Saturday Evening, Sept. 29, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—A portion of the square comprising lots Nos. 188 and 189, City plan, is offered for sale. This is one of the most desirable building lots in the city.

See Court advertisement from Granville.

Lynn Adams, having just moved into his handsome new store on Market Square, announces to the public that he is ready to serve them with increased facilities. Take a peep into his new store and you will certainly buy.

MUSIC.—We are glad to learn that the talented German Band attached to Gen. Bumford's command, have very generously proposed to discourse sweet music on the grounds of the Capitol Square in the afternoon or evenings for the gratification of the public. Gov. Worth promptly accepted and expressed his pleasure at the proposition.

The National Express Company, whose assignment took the public by surprise, is said to have possessed every encouragement in the favor of the public and the extent and constant increase of its business. Its difficulties grew out of inability to collect its requisitions upon its stockholders. Many subscribed doubtless in the hope of never being called on save for a first installment or two, supposing that the credit and profits of the concern would avail for the rest. The calls for further instalments have been poorly responded to,—hence the present embarrassments.

BISHOP W. M. GREEN.—This venerable divine was in this city on yesterday, and received a cordial welcome from his many warmly-attached friends. He left this morning for Chapel Hill, where he so long resided, and will hold divine service in the Episcopal Church in that place to-morrow.

"PLAT OR PLOT."—The enquiry propounded by Pedagogue, on yesterday, has stirred up our philologists. We present two communications on the subject to-day, and have others in hand.

Plat or Plot?

MESSRS EDITORS:—If Pedagogue, instead of looking into his own brain for authority, will consult my Unabridged Dictionary, he will find that P-l-o-t is as correct as "P-l-a-t."

"When we begin to build,
We first survey the plot."—Shakspeare.

NOAH WEBSTER.

Plat or Plot?

MESSRS. EDITORS.—Albeit modern lexicographers, not attending to the stirpes or roots of words, do write "Plot," yet it seemeth to me, who looketh at these things with a learned eye, that "Plat" is the more correct mode of spelling.

This verbum (or word) deriveth its origin from the Greek platus, which signifieth broad, and is nearly connected by kinship to the more vulgar flat. It seemeth likely that the barbarous method, common in our neighboring commonwealth, Virginia, of pronouncing the letter 'a' broadly like "o," has given rise to the vulgar habit of calling "plat" "plot."

OLD SCHOOL.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I observe that some partial friend requests that I shall declare myself a candidate for the House of Commons of the next Legislature.

I am thankful for his kind preference, but I have no aspirations in that direction.

My business engagements are such as to preclude the idea of my being an applicant for public office. Very respectfully,

RUFUS S. TUCKER.

REV. DR. HAWKS.—The announcement of the death of this eminent divine will occasion profound regret in this State. His name is indissolubly connected with that of North Carolina. Loving her with an ardent filial affection, he always manifested a warm interest in anything that affected her character or fortunes. At the outbreak of the war he had completed two volumes of a History of the State, for which work he was peculiarly fitted in all respects.

He was born in Craven County, and in early life, when at the bar, was the peer of Badger, Ruffin, and the other great lawyers of that day. He was also, for some time, Reporter of the Decisions of the Supreme Court.

As a pulpit orator he had hardly a superior in the country. Possessing the ripest theological attainments, a rare logical turn of mind, a rich and commanding voice and a striking person, he exercised a potent influence over his hearers which few men have wielded.

It is not meet that so distinguished a son of North Carolina should pass off the stage of action without a suitable tribute to his memory. We hope that some of his cotemporaries, who survive him, will furnish us a proper biographical sketch.

THE PROMINENT speakers in the Pittsburg Convention hooted at the idea that the South would be admitted to its rightful privileges in the Union by the simple adoption of the Howard amendment!

A man "down South" lately lost $100,000 by not buying a lottery ticket which drew that amount as a prize. But he saved $10 by not buying another ticket which came out blank. On the whole he is satisfied at not having bought any ticket at all.

A four-year-old went to Church, Sunday, and when he got home, his grandmother asked him what the minister said. "Don't know," said he; "he didn't speak to me." A good many older people might answer in the same way.

The Constitutional Amendment has, so far, been ratified by the States of Vermont, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Tennessee and Oregon.

Gen. DIX was offered two offices, it seems, at the same time,—and has chosen that of naval officer for the port of New York.

[From the Fayetteville Observer, August, 1864]

Richmond County Politics.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The first political discussion in the County of Richmond came off at Little's Mills, on the 14th of July, 1864, between Col. B. F. Little, of the 52d Regiment N. C. V., who lost his left arm in the battle of Gettysburg, and was a prisoner for eight months, and Col. O. H. Dockery.

Col. Little opened the debate, and in a frank and honest and earnest speech, of one hour and a half, declared the honest convictions of his heart on the state of the country, without concealment or prevarication. He openly declared his convictions of the justice of our cause, and that he was fully persuaded that, under the guidance of Providence, we should succeed in the establishment of our independence. He called upon his competitor to be equally plain, and state whether he believed our cause was a just one, as he had always understood him to be of a contrary opinion. He exposed the positive claim of his Holdenite competitor, and his party, to a desire for peace, as every man and party was for peace; that he desired peace on the basis of our independence, and upon no other terms; and called on Col. D. to declare his sentiments on this subject. Col. L. was for peace at the earliest possible moment, and was in favor of any constitutional efforts which could be made, but only on the basis of an entire separation from our enemies; and said that Gov. Vance had done more than any other Governor to urge the President and Congress to make overtures for peace. Col. L. said he was opposed to the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus at the time, for he did not believe there was such a necessity as was contemplated in the Constitution. He looked upon Gov. Vance as the model Governor, for he had clothed the soldiers of North Carolina better than the soldiers of any other State, and that in this war he had shown himself a champion for liberty at home, and freedom from the enemies of our country. He held up the acts and doings of W. W. Holden from 1840 to the present time in so true a light that none could fail to see that he was unworthy the office of Governor of the State. He closed by asking his Holden competitor to be equally frank and plain in his declarations; and by the reading of certificates from gentlemen of undoubted veracity, showed that Col. D. had declared in favor of a convention and reconstruction, with additional guarantees, as early as January last.

Col. Dockery became much excited, declared that the certificates were false, and that those who gave them were liars, (one a prominent Physician of the county of Montgomery, and the other a soldier who had lost a leg in defence of his country.) Said he had never made such declarations, and was willing to leave it to another gentleman who was present. (Col. Little, at Rockingham, read a certificate from said gentleman, a friend of Col. D's, substantially stating the same truths.) Col. D. talked loud and long about appointing Commissioners to negotiate a peace, and about secession; abused W. W. Holden, pronounced him an unscrupulous partizan, and Vance a model Governor; but in the end said he would vote for the unscrupulous partizan, rather than the model Governor. Col. D. said he knew Gentry and Horton well, and that they were incapable of telling a falsehood, and if some proof could be had from Raleigh to the same effect, (the Raleigh clique) he would not support Holden. He said his opposition to Vance arose from his Wilkesboro' speech. Gov. Vance was too much of a war man (the certificates said that he was opposed to Gov. Vance in January) in that speech, and that he, Dockery, was opposed to seceding from the Confederacy, and that Gov. Vance, upon certain contingencies, said he was for seceding. (Who ever heard of it before?) He said Gov. Vance said if reverses should befall us he would be for seceding, when he made his speech in Fayetteville. Upon the whole, he was in favor of independence, and for the unscrupulous partizan, W. W. Holden. Col. D. failed to say that he believed in the justice of our cause, talked about the horrors of war and the blessings of peace. (Who did not know all this before?) His aim was to mislead the people, to lay all the blame on the secessionists of the South, for the beginning and continuance of this war. In one particular he did well,—he did nobly—he laid heavy blows on W. W. Holden. Had Holden come in at that time, he would have said Col. D. was a destructive of the deepest dye. Verily he did Holden more injury than Col. L., while professing friendship for W. W. H., he was stabbing him under the fifth rib, and sued by the self-appointed candidate for Governor may well cry out, "save me from a my friends!"

Your correspondent also heard the candidates at the Ellerbe Springs, and at Rockingham.—After the candidates were through at Rockingham, loud calls were made for Col. Jno. W. Cameron, who made one of his happiest efforts.—He completely riddled Holden; said he wanted him to draw off and file his schedule as a political bankrupt. Among other things, he wanted him to account for his striped breeches, with which he straddled the log cabin in 1840. He had heard that turpentine was a preventative of moths, and his apron, his eulogy of Henry Clay, and his abuse of Henry Clay and every other prominent man of the country, and even of his friend Gen. Dockery.

This stirred up the ire of the old war-horse, Gen. D. He arose and said that he verily believed he would have been Governor of N. C. had it not been for this same Bill Holden.—That others had lied on him; but Holden had out-lied them all; that no man could be elected Governor of N. C. who would not lie, (humiliating confession) and closed by saying he would vote for said Bill Holden under protest.

A Maryland Governor Alarmed.

WASHINGTON, September 25.—Gov. Swann, of Maryland, has asked for five thousand troops to be stationed in Baltimore, in view of apprehended disturbances at the coming election.

It is said in Providence, Rhode Island, that Mrs. Kate Sprague, daughter of Chief Justice Chase and wife of Senator Sprague, is about to apply for a divorce.

PHILLIPS threatens the block and the axe, BROWNLOW torch and turpentine, FORNEY impeachment, SHERWOOD murder, STEVENS the penitentiary of hell. This specimen statesmanship of the Radicals ought to make holders of United States securities rush to the polls next November to keep those statesmen in power.—N. Y. World.

There was a grand rally of the conservative masses at Knoxville, Tennessee, on the 19th and 20th. It is said to have been the largest political gathering ever assembled in that end of the State. Resolutions indorsing the Philadelphia white men's Convention were adopted by acclamation, and the proceedings throughout marked by harmony and great enthusiasm.

Gen. Whittlesey has been assigned to duty as Chief Quartermaster of the Freedmen's Bureau at Washington, and ordered to report to Major General Howard.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMETTER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude.

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Colleges Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st. day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R. E. COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va., Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character. Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R. E. COLSTON,
